

Karen Barnett

SPEAKER / AUTHOR

God leaves fingerprints on our world and on His children's lives. I like to help people see it for themselves through laughter and story.

What people are saying:

"Karen's dry wit and descriptiveness pulls the listener in as if they are right there in the moment, participating in the story."

Deanna Day Young, President, Bucket Buddies Mission

Words used to describe Karen's style: funny, story-teller, creative, believable, gracious, humorous, trustworthy

Immeasurably More

How big are your prayers? Could God be calling you to the impossible?

When Weak is Strong

We revel in our self-reliance, but sometimes God chooses to be the Hero of our story.
